Re: Freedom of Information Act Request

Dear Sir or Madam:

On May 30, 2012, DMB Redwood City Saltworks (Saltworks) submitted a request for a formal, legally binding, and final jurisdictional determination (JD) under the Rivers and Harbors Act (RHA) and the Clean Water Act (CWA) for the 1,365-acre Redwood City Salt Plant (Salt Plant) in San Mateo County, California. The Corps San Francisco District informed Saltworks that the final JD for the Salt Plant would be issued by the District Engineer on May 16, 2014. Notwithstanding those representations and two years having passed since the original request, the JD has not yet been issued.

This is a request pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and EPA's FOIA regulations, 40 C.F.R. Part 2, for EPA records. In accordance with these authorities, please make available a copy of any responsive documents¹ related to the DMB Redwood City Salt Plant (also known as DMB Redwood City Saltworks project, Redwood City Saltworks project site, Redwood City salt production facilities, or any reference to Cargill operated facilities in Redwood City) in San Mateo County, California, since May 30, 2014, including but not limited to:

¹ The term "documents" as used herein includes originals, non-identical copies and drafts, printed, reproduced by hand or otherwise, and includes, but is not limited to, correspondence, letters, memoranda, notes, e-mails, inter- or intra-office, agency, or departmental communications, records, summaries of personal or telephone conversations or interviews, minutes or records of meetings or conferences (including meetings of boards, committees, sub-committees, or any individual member thereof), press releases, telegrams, telexes, books, preliminary and final reports, logs, diaries, audio recordings, video recordings, computer files, charts, notebooks, calendars, statistical statements, tables, tabulations, calculations, data, diagrams, plans, drawings, blueprints, and orders, opinions or reports of consultants, experts, engineers, accountants or analysts.
